

Internship Offer: Educational Coordinator for Virtual Reality Project at the Alliance Française de Melbourne

The Alliance Française de Melbourne is a dynamic cultural and linguistic center offering language courses and cultural programs to promote the French language and culture. We aim to expand our educational offerings by developing an innovative project in the field of virtual reality, designed to attract teenage and adult audiences and enrich our educational program. As part of this project, AFM is also creating a Micro-Folie, a digital museum that provides interactive and immersive access to art, science, and culture through technology.

Mission:

We are looking for an educational coordinator intern to support the development of an immersive learning program using virtual reality. This minimum 3-month internship will allow you to participate in the creation and implementation of educational content, as well as the design of innovative activities that use virtual reality to teach French and make French culture accessible to a diverse audience.

Objectives:

- Design educational pathways and learning activities for teenagers and adults using virtual reality.
- Collaborate with the teaching team to integrate cultural and linguistic content into the VR modules.
- Participate in the creation of collections for the Micro-Folie, with a focus on using virtual reality to explore art and culture.
- Test VR modules and collect feedback to refine and improve educational pathways.
- Contribute to the development of educational materials and support tools for trainers and students.
- Attend project development meetings and provide your educational expertise.

Profile Sought:

- Student in education, teaching, instructional design, user experience (UX) design, or a related field.
- Experience or interest in virtual reality and its educational applications is a plus.
- Creativity, autonomy, and the ability to work in a team.
- Strong organizational and writing skills.
- Knowledge of French culture and good proficiency in French required.
- English proficiency is also necessary.

Conditions :

- Minimum 3-month internship, 20-25 hours per week max, starting April/May 2025.
- Based at the Alliance Française de Melbourne, Australia.
